

State Archives' Holdings of Governors' Public Records and Private Papers (status in 1996)
 Table 15 in COSHRC report, Maintaining State Records in an Era of Change (1996)
 (The full report is available at <http://www.coshrc.org/reports/1996rpt/1996survey.htm>.)

State name	Receive official public records of governor?	If no, where do they go?	Receive private papers of governor?	If no, where do they go?
Alabama	Y		N	Various state universities and colleges
Alaska	Y			Since 1959, most of the records from the administration are in state archives
Arizona	Y		N
Arkansas
California	Y		N	UC Berkeley, USC, Stanford
Colorado	Y		N
Connecticut	Y		N	Various
Delaware	Y		N	Historical Society of Delaware
District of Columbia
Florida	Y		N	Universities
Georgia	Y		N
Hawaii	Y		N
Idaho	Y	Most in state archives, one at Boise State University	Y	Most in state archives, two elsewhere
Illinois	Y		N	At Governor's discretion, usually the Illinois State Historical Society
Indiana	Y		N	Franklin College, Goshen College, Indiana State Library
Iowa	N		N
Kansas	Y	Now required by law; papers of two governors at U of Kansas-Kansas Collection		Receive some
Kentucky	Y		N	State universities
Louisiana
Maine	Y		N
Maryland
Massachusetts	Y		N	Massachusetts Historical Society; Boston College, Northeastern University
Michigan	Y	Under Atty General's opinion, each governor determines which are public; these are transferred to state archives	N	Various institutions, but primarily the University of Michigan
Minnesota	Y		Y	Most become part of the MHS manuscripts collection.
Mississippi	Y		N
Missouri	Y		N
Montana	Y		N	State Archives has received some; University of Montana has some.
Nebraska	Y	Y
Nevada	Y		N	University of Nevada Special Collections; Nevada Historical Society; Huntington Library
New Hampshire	usually	May go to any designated repository	N	May go to any designated repository
New Jersey	Y		N	Colleges, universities, museums

New Mexico	Y	Y
New York	Y	But not all of them	N
North Carolina	Y		N	State Archives has received private papers of many governors, but so have many university manuscript collections in the state.
North Dakota	Y		N
Ohio	Y	Y
Oklahoma	Y		N	University of Oklahoma Western History Collections; Carl Albert Congressional Research Center (U of OK); Oklahoma State University
Oregon	Y	There are some exceptions in the 1991 statute adopted that specified governor's records will be transferred to state archives	N	Oregon Historical Society; University of Oregon Library/Special Collections
Pennsylvania	Y		N
Rhode Island	N	State University	N	State University
South Carolina	Y		N
South Dakota	N	Universities	N	Universities
Tennessee	Y		N	State and private universities
Texas	Y	Some records placed at public universities	N	College and university archives
Utah	Y		N
Vermont	Y		N
Virginia	Y		N
Washington	Y		N	University of Washington; Washington State University; State Historical Society
West Virginia	Y	Since 1977, come to State Archives by law; also have some earlier	N	State Archives has two; most of rest are at West Virginia University
Wisconsin	Y		N
Wyoming	Y		N	American Heritage Center, University of Wyoming