

2019 CoSA Webinar Series

Member Webinars: 4th Thursday @ 3pm Eastern
 SERI Webinars: Tuesdays @ 2 pm Eastern

2019 Member Webinar Theme: Planning for emergency preparedness and response is critical for archives and records centers. CoSA will explore specific training, funding, and related issues in this series of member webinars.

2019 SERI Webinars will explore archiving email, blockchain, proprietary file formats, and electronic records protocols.

JANUARY	SERI Webinar Three Years of Email: Lessons Learned from the TOMES Project Tuesday, January 8, 2019 2:00pm Eastern Register Now Presented by: Camille Tyndall Watson, North Carolina State Archives The Transforming Online Mail with Embedded Semantics (TOMES) project, which was funded by the NHPRC, wrapped up in late 2018. TOMES investigated and implemented a new Capstone-based retention program for email records and built a tool for identifying subjects, Personally Identifiable Information, and confidential/restricted information in email accounts. Camille Tyndall Watson will discuss the findings of the project, lessons learned, and next steps for the future of TOMES. Target audiences: Archivist Practitioners, Archivist Managers, and Records Analysts/Managers Attendees should be familiar with the fundamentals of email preservation.
	What's on Tap for CoSA in 2019 Thursday, January 24, 2019 3:00 pm Eastern Register Now Presenters: CoSA Board and Committee Chairs If it's January, it must be time for CoSA's first member webinar of the New Year! Continuing our schedule as in previous years, this webinar looks at what will be engaging CoSA and many of its members in the coming year. Find out how you can be part of the conversation and get involved at the committee and task force levels.
FEBRUARY	SERI Webinar Kaine Email Project Update Tuesday, February 19, 2019 2:00pm Eastern Register Now Presented by: Roger Christman, Library of Virginia and Susan Gray Page, Library of Virginia The Library of Virginia made its first batch of former Governor Timothy Kaine's email publicly available in January 2014. Join Roger Christman and Susan Gray Page as they discuss how the project has evolved in the ensuing five years. Roger will discuss challenges around training other archivists to process email, as well as ongoing efforts to educate stakeholders on how to manage and transfer electronic records to the Library. Susan will discuss the Library's use of predictive coding to process a batch of Kaine email with the help of two professors at the University of Waterloo.

	Target audiences: Archivist Practitioners, Archivist Managers, and Records Analysts/Managers. No technical expertise is needed; however, attendees are strongly encouraged to familiarize themselves with the Kaine email project (http://www.virginiamemory.com/collections/kaine/) before the webinar begins. <hr/> SHRAB Town Hall Thursday, February 28, 2019 3:00 pm Eastern Register Now Join staff from the National Historical Publications and Records Commission to hear about program updates and highlights. Be sure to invite your SHRAB members, too!
MARCH	SERI Webinar Collaborative, Self-Governed, Secure Digital Preservation with LOCKSS Tuesday, March 12, 2019 2:00 pm Eastern  Presented by: Nicholas Taylor, Stanford University Libraries LOCKSS (Lots of Copies Keeps Stuff Safe) Program Manager Nicholas Taylor will discuss how LOCKSS networks empower communities to steward and protect digital content of shared interest. Originally deployed for the preservation of the scholarly record, the LOCKSS software is now applied for myriad use cases, including government information and special collections. Features such as support for local IT control, jurisdictional determination of storage, and resilience to internal and external attacks on preserved content may be of particular interest. Please join this webinar to learn more about how LOCKSS technologies work, how LOCKSS networks are being used, and how LOCKSS may serve the digital preservation needs of CoSA members. Target audience: Archivist Practitioner, Archivist Manager, Records Analyst/Manager Attendees should have some degree of familiarity with digital preservation (e.g., risks, challenges, approaches, tools, etc.). Attendees who are unfamiliar with LOCKSS may wish to review the following in advance: “What Is LOCKSS?” (https://www.lockss.org/about/what-lockss), “Why LOCKSS?” (https://www.lockss.org/about/why-lockss), and “Case Studies” (https://www.lockss.org/join-lockss/case-studies). <hr/> Emergency Preparedness - Heritage Emergency National Task Force (HENTF) Thursday, March 28, 2019 3:00 pm Eastern Register Now
APRIL	SERI Webinar [Title TBD] Tuesday, March 12, 2019 2:00pm Eastern Register Now Presented by: Nick Connizzo, Vermont State Archives Presentation will focus on blockchain technology. More details will be available soon. <hr/> Advocacy for Archives Thursday, April 25, 2019 3:00 pm Eastern Register Now Presenters: CoSA Advocacy Committee

MAY	SERI Webinar IQ and You: South Carolina's Approach to Governor's Records in a Proprietary File Format Tuesday, May 14, 2019 2:00pm Eastern Register Now In December 2016, South Carolina's Governor unexpectedly left office in the middle of her second four-year term and accepted a federal government position. The departure and subsequent transfer of her records to the state archives presented archival staff with the opportunity to work on records that were managed, stored, and used in Lockheed Martin's IQ software suite. This webinar will present the steps the staff utilized to transform the metadata supplied by the Governor's Office into a format useable by the archives' electronic records preservation system. Target audiences: Archivist Practitioners and front-line Archival Managers. Attendees should have a basic understanding of database structures, metadata, and information management.
	Emergency Preparedness - Case Studies Thursday, May 23, 2019 3:00 pm Eastern Register Now
JUNE	SERI Webinar Bit by Bit: Alabama State Electronic Records Project Update Tuesday, June 11, 2019 2:00pm Eastern Register Now In 2017, the NHPRC awarded the Alabama Department of Archives and History funds to launch the Alabama State Electronic Records Project (ASERP). Partnering with the Office of the Governor, this project seeks to enhance electronic records management, transfer, preservation, processing and access protocols. Dorothy Davis and Rachel Smith will discuss the project's strategies, outcomes, and lessons learned from working with born-digital gubernatorial records. Target audiences: Archivist Practitioners and Archivist Managers. No technical expertise is needed.
	Emergency Preparedness - Alliance for Response / Foundation of the American Institute for Conservation of Historic and Artistic Works (FAIC) Thursday, June 27, 2019 3:00 pm Eastern Register Now
JULY	Emergency Preparedness - Lyrasis / Conservation Center for Art and Historic Artifacts (CCAHA) Thursday, July 25, 2019 3:00 pm Eastern Register Now
AUGUST	CoSA Annual Meeting Review Thursday, August 22, 2019 3:00 pm Eastern Register Now

	Presenters: CoSA Board and Committee Members In case you missed the Annual Meeting or simply want a refresher, this webinar will provide an overview of CoSA activities, from Work Session discussions to Awards presentations.
SEPTEMBER	SHRAB Town Hall Thursday, September 26, 2019 3:00 pm Eastern Register Now
OCTOBER	Recipients of CoSA-Ancestry Leadership Award and Victoria Irons Walch Emerging Leader Award Thursday, October 24, 2019 3:00 pm Eastern Register Now The final member webinar of the year will feature CoSA-Ancestry Leadership Award and Victoria Irons Walch Emerging Leader Award recipients discussing how the professional development opportunities funded by the award have advanced their leadership skills.